 The Jazz Salon

THE JAZZ SALON

DISCUSSION. MUSIC.

HEALTH

Friday 26 February

A growing body of research points to a link between mental health and creativity. In our first Jazz Salon, host Kevin Le Gendre and trumpeter Yazz Ahmed explore the relationship between yoga, meditation and jazz, followed by music to restore the spirit by Gary Crosby's Jazz Salon House Band.

SPOKEN WORD

Friday 29 April

Host Kevin Le Gendre is joined by poet and DJ, Charlie Dark to explore the enduring connection between music and spoken word. Tracing a line from 1920s jazz poetry, they discuss why words and music continue to (re)present revolution. Gary Crosby and his Jazz Salon House Band follow with a performance of Charles Mingus' Scenes From The City. (In association with Apples & Snakes)

FOOD

Friday 25 March

The Great Jazz Bake-Off! Host Kevin Le Gendre invites broadcaster and Jazz FM 'Dinner Jazz' presenter, Helen Mayhew to consider why we enjoy listening to jazz while we eat. Tomorrow's Warriors Youth Orchestra perform a set featuring classics immortalised by Duke Ellington and his Cotton Club Orchestra.

ART

Friday 27 May

Specialist vinyl record label, Gearbox Records shares insights on some of the labels whose distinctive artwork has elevated the humble album cover into a collectors items. Our house band reinterpret music that inspired some of this iconic imagery.

DANCE

Friday 24 June

Dancer, choreographer, producer and words smith, Sean Graham offers his thoughts on the changing nature of movement and dance in jazz, while our Jazz Salon House Band plays a final set of music inspired by dance bringing Series 1 of The Jazz Salon to an enthralling close, perhaps with a nod towards Series 2....
